AN AIR OF MYSTERY

The course of their study program for the coming year is still a "mystery" as members of the Women's Voter League plan their Annual Meeting for May 24. Depicting some of the topics the program might be are, from left, two children, Brett Beaver and Julia Ann Anderson, emphasizing "Child Education" as Mrs. Phillip Goldhammer looks on. At the right, "Recreation" could be the topic as enacted by Mes. F. D. Henry and Mrs. William Radcliffe, president, with baseball and golf equipment. (Press-Herald Photo)

First Grandchild Arrives to Make Mothers Day Exciting

Mother's Day 1967 will long be remembered by the Probert and McCoy families. It was the day their first grandchild arrived.

The seven pound, two ounce young man was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Patrick Probert at the Hoag Memorial Hospital in Newport Beach.

He has been named George Lawrence Probert II for his paternal grandfather.

The two sets of delighted grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Probert, 1428 El Prado, long time residents of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. George Henry McCoy of Bakersfield.

George Lawrence Probert II also made Mother's Day an especially happy occasion for two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Anna May Langan of Hollywood and Mrs. George G. Probert of Newport.
